The churches have forty-five years of misguidance to undo and rectify. The negro's only definition of law is the will of the white man—that is as near an ethical proposition as he has got lie is a child that has been spoiled. In emanding him we gave him toys and weapons and instruments no child was ever given to play with. The only channel open between the races is the white episcopate. In the vote on the question the New York clerical delegation was divided, but J. Pierpoint Morgan, for the lay deputies, voted in favor of it. The measure was lost.

With the provision that the president of the Board of Missions shall hold office by six year terms the missionary canon passed the House of Deputies in about the same shape as it passed the House of Bishops. The new arrangement takes the executive office of the board out of lay hands and places it in keeping of a Bishop and grante half of the membership to the missionary districts, making the provision in the canons on marriage and divorce allowing an Episcopal dergyman latitude in marrying divorced persons if he judges they are the innocent parties in the divorce case. The marriage of any divorced persons is now absolutely prohibited.
